Instructor Qualifications: All Krasl Art Center (KAC) faculty members are experienced, professional art educators that have been trained and vetted by KAC's Education Department. Read more about KAC's Teaching Artists (Faculty) on the website.

Education Philosophy: Krasl Art Center (KAC) education programs range from tuition-based studio classes to free public events and offsite community partnerships. A common education philosophy unites all of these programs, emphasizing four strategies: "creating an inclusive and supportive learning environment," "student-centered learning," "connecting art to life," and "process over product." Please read more about each of these four strategies in our KAC Education Philosophy.

CLASS POLICIES (ATTENDANCE, BEHAVIOR, WEATHER, ETC.):

Weather: In the case of inclement weather, KAC classes are canceled and rescheduled (at the end of the semester) at the discretion of the Director of Education. All students & guardians are contacted prior to the start of class. If a student cannot make it to class, please contact KAC for an excused absence. Any absence without forewarning is considered an unexcused absence.

COVID-19 Policies: Masks are optional for KAC Programs. Any changes to these policies will be emailed to guardians and students prior to the start of class.

Guardians in Classroom: Guardians are asked to not be present in the classroom for the duration of the course. Guardians are welcome to wait outside of the classroom in the lobby, the Overlook Room, or in the KAC Library on the 2nd floor (Unless there are special circumstances, behavioral or medical, that have been approved by the Director of Education). The reason for this policy is safety and classroom experience:

Safety: All KAC Youth Instructors are trained and vetted. It is crucial that we have consistent standards for all adults working with youth.

Classroom Experience: Students and teachers can be easily distracted by additional people in the classroom.
